4. EMAIL STRUCTURE & BEST PRACTICES

What makes a fresher's email stand out

Keep the email short—around 100–150 words. The HR should be able to understand your profile within a few seconds.

Use this structure:

Subject → Role → Degree/Experience → 2–3 Skills → Relevant Project/Internship → Resume → Contact

Avoid these common mistakes

1. Subject: Job
2. Writing a very long introduction
3. Copy-pasting the entire resume into the email
4. Listing 10–15 technologies
5. Writing generic statements like "I am hardworking and passionate" without evidence
6. Sending the email without attaching the resume
7. Using an unprofessional email address
8. Sending the same email without changing the company/role
9. Writing "Dear Sir/Madam" when the HR's name is available
